ALL OUT TO-NIGHT

Mc Gill men are expected to pack the rink to-night.

Unless the McGill team score a victory to-night they will have little chance of winning the championship.

A large body of rooters will be on hand to cheer the Vickers team; will McGill be out-done in this respect?

The members of the team are of the opinion that an organized body of rooters will be of great assistance to them.

Get out to-night.

JUNIORS SHUT OUT VICS TO TUNE OF 4-0

THIRD VICTORY

Hall and Lowry Showed Up Well—Layton for Vics

The Junior team on Saturday scored another victory by defeating Victorias to the tune of 4-0. At no time during the game was the latter team particularly dangerous, although it put up a consistent contest from the time the whistle blew. The first part of the game was rather slow, perhaps due to the fact that the players had not got properly warmed up. During the second period, the Juniors played fast and clean hockey, their combination work being particularly good.

The game started with McGill on the offensive, and the brilliant work of the Victoria defence is responsible for the small number of tallies. Shortly after the play began, Sabourin replaced Hall and MacIntosh Lowry. This proved to be effective, for MacIntosh, after a brilliant piece of combination work with McNeider, scored.

The second period began with both teams working hard. McGill, however, kept the puck well up on the Victoria goal. McCormack did good work at this stage, and stopped many a hot one. The offensive work now began to tell upon the men, and the play again swayed in favour of the visitors. Lally, however, was ready, and saved several swift ones. After a few minutes of more or less intermission, the McGill forwards again took the offensive, this time with effect, and Hall, on a pass from Lowry, scored.

Shortly after the rubber went into play, Eager slipped one in on a skrimish in front of the net.

The Victoria forwards made a spurt at this stage and rained in several on Lally, but without effect. Just before time, Sabourin, after an end to end rush, scored, making the score 4-0.

The line-up and summary are as follows:—

McGill	Victoria
Lally	McCormack
Hall	Layton
McNeider	McVey
Lowry	Fraser
Murphy	Gilliehan
McIntyre	Young

Substitutes.
McGill — Galle, Eager, Sabourin, MacIntosh.

HARD WORK AHEAD FOR BASKETBALL MEN

Many Men Fail to Turn Out Regularly—Game Saturday

A special practice was called for Saturday, at 6.00 p.m., and both Senior and Intermediate teams were well represented, the latter being complete with the exception of Kennedy. Hay and "Art" Young failed to turn up, with the result that the Seniors were unable to get practice in team work, which will be absolutely necessary to defeat the North Branch team on Saturday next. McGill has every chance of winning two basketball championships this year, but unless every member of the Senior team turns up to both the Tuesday practice at 6.45 and on Thursday at 7.00 p.m., they will almost surely go down to their first defeat on Saturday.

The Intermediate had an excellent work-out, and every member appears to be most keenly interested and is willing to sacrifice other social pleasures to be on hand when practices are called. They were working well together, scoring most of their baskets against the Seniors from close in, which speaks well for their team work. The defence, with Levitt and Marsh, Kern, is in mid-season form.

Campaign Starts

To-day has been set as the date of the "Whirlwind Campaign" staged by the Y. M. C. A. for the students of Asia. The matter has been fully explained in other issues of "McGill Daily" and it only remains for those in charge to ask the students to give the appeal of the canvassers their careful consideration and hearty support. The collector will be ready and glad to explain to you anything you may wish to know concerning the use to be made of the money given, or the past work achieved by the McGill Mission in Ceylon.

Is McGill going to let it be said that the students of Dalhousie, McMaster and other colleges far smaller than she is knew how to give, while she did not? Show a bit of the spirit of self-sacrifice, fellow-students, and help to make this campaign a success.

LARGE LIST OF MCGILL FATALITIES

Over Three Hundred Graduates and Under-Graduates Killed

MANY DECORATED

Honors Awarded During War Include Two Victoria Crosses

From time to time, during the past four years, lists of the fatalities among McGill men as well as the decorations accorded them have been compiled and published. It has been practically impossible, however, to have a complete list owing to the fact that the numbers were increasing daily.

Since the signing of the armistice it has been possible to revise former accounts and many additions have been made, as well as changes, made necessary because of news received since the cessation of hostilities. There have been statements issued regarding some of the men who were formerly reported as missing, many of whom have since been repatriated whereas it has been necessary to list some as "killed in action." The present list includes the names of more than 300 McGill men, who have been killed.

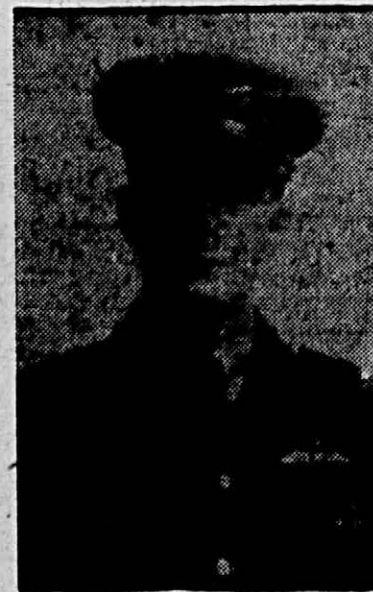

Many of the decorations have been awarded since the signing of the armistice and the list has been swelled accordingly. There are many men who had received honours and decorations but, as those who received them were situated in places far apart from one another, and many were never mentioned in the Canadian reports, it was almost impossible to secure a complete account of them. Further news of these has been received and, with a few possible exceptions, the list is practically complete. There have been two V. C.'s and a multitude of other decorations awarded McGill men.

It required a great amount of work to complete the lists as they now are and much time was spent upon them. All reports concerning the war, up to November, 1918, are now at hand, so that it may be assumed that the future additions to the present list will be very few.

The Annual, which will appear next month, will publish these lists for the first time and is bound to be of interest to everyone. In addition to the accounts of fatalities and de-

THE CAMPAIGN FOR ASIATIC STUDENTS

To-day the college as a whole is to be canvassed for subscriptions to the campaign undertaken by the McGill Y. M. C. A., in aid of the work being carried on for the students of Asia. There is no doubt that in spite of the careful efforts that have been made to explain the nature and purpose of this campaign to the students, there will yet be some who are unable to "see their way clear" to subscribing. These men, however, will not, as in former years, be left to their own devices without an attempt being made to rouse them from the self-created slumber in which they are plunged. The canvassers, as far as can be ascertained at present, will be ready to explain in full anything about the campaign that is not quite clear to those whom they wish to ask for monetary support. Full confidence is expressed by these men that the undergraduates when they have listened to what the collectors have to say, will realize where their duty lies, and will not allow McGill to fall below the mark that has been set for her.

This state of mind on the part of the canvassers is a good thing in itself and augurs well for the success of the campaign. If at any time in days past the students have failed to live up to the sanguine expectations of those who came to them for support, it has been, we believe, because they had not learned the facts of the case, and had not set their minds to work on the matter. It is undoubtedly a mistake to expect a man who is working his way through college and who is never at any time in affluent circumstances as far as cash is concerned to subscribe to a cause with the history and aim of which he is imperfectly acquainted. More than this, the man who is approached by a canvasser who shows no sign of enthusiasm for his cause is not likely to feel the need for generosity. A great deal depends on the personal element, when we are speaking of collectors.

Enough has been said with regard to the work being carried on in Ceylon and China in other columns of the Daily. We have before us the plain statement of the goal that has been set before the canvassers, and most of us have heard of the splendid response that has been made on other occasions by such colleges as Dalhousie. Let us see to it that McGill shall be in future the university to which other institutions may point as an example of those who understand how to give.

Corrections, a history of all the McGill units which have proceeded overseas will be included in the book. There will also be photographs of many of the men, particularly of those of '20 year who have been killed in action.

Graduates are taking much interest in this edition of the Annual owing to the fact that it is a memorial issue and already there have been numerous subscriptions sent in to the staff. These will all be assured of a copy as the book is not entirely ready for the press, but once it is, only a limited number will be printed and the undergraduates will have the preference. It is expected that the whole issue will be applied for long before it is really published, but as it is impossible to keep any after this season, the Annual Board feels that it will have to disappoint some rather than have too many on hand. Any applications received now, will be placed on file and given attention as soon as the issue is ready.

Brown is improving his shot by hard and faithful practice, being the first on the floor and the last off at all practices. "Bib" Laishley shows speed, which, with a little more experience, would make him a big asset to the Senior team. Rapp is rounding into shape, and should give a good account of himself in future games.

With Geo. Upham back in the regular practices, the prospects for the Senior team are brighter. Lou Korn is surely a "find" for the McGill Basketball Club, and with Monty as a team-mate, the defence looks strong. This Saturday will see one of the hardest fought games ever held in this city, but there is every reason to doubt the condition of the Senior forwards. Hay will have to realize that one practice in ten days will not put him into shape, and by staying away he is not only losing his own condition but keeping the rest of the team back.

"Art" Young and Ross Laing are expected to come out strong this week and help hand the North Branch team its first defeat of the season. The Intermediates are expected to land a game with Macdonald College, to take place previous to the Senior game on Saturday of this week. The very reasonable fee of 15c will be charged, and a large attendance is anticipated.

AIRMAN TELLS OF ESCAPE

Lieut. Beverley Robinson at Windsor Hall, Monday Night

Lieut. Beverley Robinson, R. A. F., will deliver his lecture, "Escaped—After 2½ Years in Nine German Prisons," at Windsor Hall, to-night. Lieut. Robinson, who was the only Canadian-born officer in any branch of the service to escape from Germany during the war, will give an absorbing recital of his prison experiences, which includes a close-up view of several notorious commandants and a description of the ruses which he and some fellow-captives adopted in their breaks for liberty. The final adventure which brought Lieut. Robinson and a comrade safely to neutral soil is told with especially graphic touches. The lecture is delivered by permission of the Air Ministry and under the patronage of the Governor-General. Professor Stephen Leacock will take the chair at 8.30 and introduce Lieut. Robinson. Lieut. Robinson is a son of the late Christopher Robinson, K.C., the eminent jurist, a grandson of the late Sir John Beverley Robinson, Bart., Chief Justice of Upper Canada, and a nephew of Hon. John Beverley Robinson, at one time Lieut.-Governor of Ontario.

R. V. C. NOTES

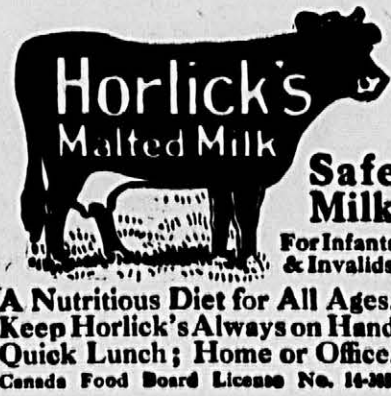

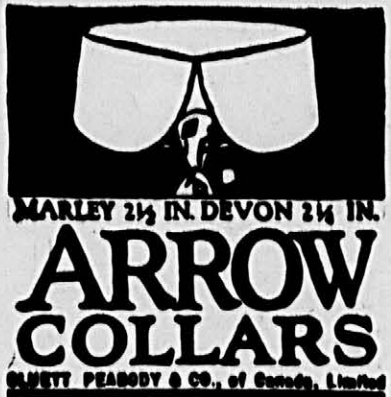

The members of the Senior Year are invited to attend a meeting of the Alumnae Society, which will take place in R.V.C. to-day, at 4.00 p.m., in the Common Room. At 4.45 p.m., Mr. George M. Brewer will give a lecture-recital on Debussy's "Pelleas and Melisande," in the Drawing-room.

Four Years in the Enemy's Hands.
 In the Assembly Hall of R.V.C., on Wednesday evening, at 8.15, Dr. Beland will give a lecture on "Four Years in the Enemy's Hands." This is the third of the series of lectures given under the auspices of the Alumnae Society in aid of the libraries for returned soldiers, and promises to be a very interesting and instructive address.

Rutherford, '18—Colonel Birkett Becomes Brigadier-General Birkett—Graduates in Medicine Take Part in Programme of Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment.

Lieut. J. C. Mitchell, Sci. '18, son of E. C. Mitchell, London, Ont., has been awarded the Military Cross. At the outbreak of war he was taking a science course at McGill. During the term of 1914-15 he drilled with the C.O.T.C. and was anxious to go overseas with them, but on account of his youth was prevented. Upon going home in the spring he attached himself to the 6th Field Battery for instructional purposes and went to Kingston and took a course in the Artillery School, from which he was gazetted as lieutenant. He was then attached to the 29th Field Battery, stationed at Guelph, and when that battery went overseas in 1915 he was recommended by his colonel for an important position, but the authorities at Ottawa would not grant this request on account of his youth and on account of the short time he had been with the forces. He went overseas with the 55th Field Battery the following August and after a period of intensive training in England, went to France with his battery and has been in active service ever since. He was appointed A.D.C. to General Odum, of the 11th Brigade, 4th Division, and was wounded early in September last, at the battle of Amiens. Upon recovering from his wounds and learning that the position of A.D.C. was held open for him, he decided to accept it and is at present with the forces, near Mons.

Arthur Mitchell, a brother, is in St. Lucia, West Indies, where he has been for about two years. He is with the garrison there. Some time ago he was promoted as O.C. of La Toc Battery, which position he now holds.

First Across the Rhine

"Well, here we are at the end of our journey or so close to it that it isn't worth mentioning," writes Gunner Walter Marson, Sci. '18, son of W. S. Marson, 361 Roslyn avenue, Westmount, who is with a Canadian artillery unit with the army of occupation in Germany.

"It is Sunday afternoon and we are in a comfortable billet. It has been a long march. It took us about a month. At first we took things easily, marching one day and resting for one or even two days, but after the first two days we started to step lively and were on the road every day with the exception of two.

"The other day when we passed through Cologne it was a bit of a turn to lead the battery and the 66th was attached to the advance battalion so that our old gun was the first across the Rhine. There are two bridges and the Canadians were crossing one and the Imperials the other and I know for a fact that our battery was across before the advance battery of the Imperials. That is quite an honour isn't it?

"Cologne, as you know is a large town of nearly a million population. There is nothing very striking about it. No large prominent buildings. The only thing that caught my eye was a couple of buildings, the fronts of which were all painted in a decorative design, like on some ceilings. It took us about an hour and a half to pass through the city and on the eastern side of the river we were inspected by a motley of generals and red caps.

"It seems funny that we can sit and chew the fat so amiably with these people when only a few days ago we were at war with them. There were two sons in the family, one was killed and the other who is here was gassed at Verdun. They seem to bear no ill feeling in spite of it and treat us pretty well. Of course it is hard to know what to make of it. They have slipped it over us once and I'm off them for life.

"I saw in one of the newspapers that the Canadian troops used in the army of occupation were solely volunteers. There was no volunteering as far as the rank and file were concerned. We come in complete units, such as complete batteries, brigades and divisions.

Was Prisoner in Germany

Major Hugh N. Fraser, past student, who has returned to his home in Ottawa, has an interesting war record. He went to France in February, 1915, with the Second Battalion and, after a lot of service with that unit was promoted to a staff position with the 8th Brigade. While in the front line trenches, at Sanctuary Wood, on June 2, 1916, Captain Fraser was made a prisoner, the occasion being the heavy German surprise attack on that position. Two years of imprisonment in Germany followed. Captain Fraser—who was made a Major after his return to England—was confined by turns in four different German camps: Gutersloh, Creffield, Schuarmstedt and Holzminden. In the first two named camps his treatment was excellent. In the last two it was extremely bad, everything possible being done to make his life unpleasant. Major Fraser was released under The Hague arrangement providing for the exchange of prisoners held longer than eighteen months, and reached Holland in May.

Others who have returned include the following:—

Armour, Major E. B. P., Sci. '15, C.F.A., twice wounded, Toronto.
Foster, Capt. L. S., Med. '09, C.A.M.C., Montreal.

Seath, Lieut. W. Pringle, Sci. '16, C.F.A., twice wounded, Montreal.

McCusker, Capt. E. A., M.C., Med. '16, of the C.A.M.C., wounded, Regina, Sask.

Gilchrist, Capt. G. H., M.C., Sci. '15, of the Canadian Engineers, wounded, Ottawa.

Bunt, Lieut. W. P., Arts '16, Royal Air Force, Collingwood, Ont.
Pelletier, Lieut. H. B., Sci. '18, Canadian Engineers, Montreal.

Davies, Lt. J. F. B., Sci. '15, of the Royal Air Force, Hull, Que.

Marotte, Gunner E. S., Arch. '16, of No. 7 Canadian Siege Battery, wounded, Montreal.

Taber, Gunner H. E., Sci. '19, No. 7 Canadian Siege Battery, Carleton Place, Ont.

En Route to Japan

At letter has been received from Dr. J. Hinson West, Med. '15, written as the steamer Nanking was nearing the coast of Japan. Dr. West's numerous friends will be glad to know that the voyage across the Pacific was a pleasant one, marred only by the presence of influenza on the ship. This meant that no passengers were allowed ashore at Honolulu. Mrs. West was among those attacked by the influenza, but the attack was a light one, lasting only about four days.

Sir Thomas White, acting premier, presented the D.S.O. to Major Trotter, Sci. '09, at Ottawa on January 22.

A son was born at Fredericton, N.B., on January 18 to the wife of Capt. E. W. Lunney, Med. '17.

The marriage was solemnized at St. Andrew's Church, Upper Melbourne, Que., on January 27, of Emily Irene, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chestnut, Vancouver, B.C., to Capt. James Alonzo Wood, M.C., Sci. '14, fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood, Upper Melbourne.

W. P. Hughes, Arts '12, secretary of the Montreal branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, sailed last week from Lyons, France, to attend the International Fair.

The death occurred at Washington, D.C., on January 26, of Dr. Alexander MacDonnell, past student, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. MacDonnell, Belleville, Ont. Dr. MacDonnell had been ill in Pittsburg, but had recovered sufficiently, he thought, to return home to Charleston, S.C. He was however, again taken ill and was removed to a hospital in Washington, where he passed away of pneumonia. Deceased studied law in Belleville and then attended McGill. Interment took place at Charleston.

The Military Medal has been awarded Sergt. J. Bulmer Rutherford, Arts '18, who went overseas with the 66th Battery, C.F.A.

The mother of the late Lieut. Kevin S. Drummond, past student, was at Toronto on January 23 presented with the Military Cross won by her son in a bombing raid at the front.

Lieut.-Colonel A. T. Shillington, Med. '94, sails shortly for England to be absent several weeks.

The engagement is announced in Chicago of Miss Louise Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Taylor, of that city, to Fred. H. Booth, Sci. '17, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred. Booth, Ottawa.

Lieut. Hobart M. Birks, Sci. '17, of the Royal Highlanders of Canada, has won the Military Cross.

Colonel H. S. Birkett, C.B., Med. '85, has been gazetted a brigadier-general in the C.A.M.C.

Dr. Louis J. Hartman, Med. '16, has left his home at Alexandria Bay, N.Y., for Menomone, Wis., where he will engage in practice.

Dr. Hartman, after practicing in a Jersey City hospital enlisted in the American service August 12, 1917, and in December was sent overseas and was in active service there until invalided home September, 1918, receiving treatment in Boston and New York hospitals he was honourably discharged from the service and a short time ago returned to his home in Alexandria Bay. For the past few weeks he had been practicing there during the epidemic of influenza.

Major R. R. Barber, Sci. '00, has been awarded the Colonial Auxiliary Forces Officers' decoration for long service in the Canadian militia.

Hon. O. A. Lambert, who died in Ottawa on January 24, was the father of Henry F. J. Lambert, Sci. '04.

Lieut. W. Stanley Cole, Sci. '17, of the 2nd Battalion, Canadian Engineers, has been promoted to the rank of captain.

The engagement is announced of Captain Arthur L. Lynch, Med. '03, of the R.A.M.C., son of W. J. Lynch, I. S.O., Ottawa, and Janet Hunter Elisabeth, daughter of Rev. George Bell D'Doughy, rector of St. Peter's-Upon-Cornhill, London, England.

Lieut. Ross Taylor, Med. '18, of the C.A.M.C., was on January 29 united in marriage to Miss Mildred Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cooke, 34 Arlington avenue, Montreal. Lieut. E. S. Carter was best man.

For gallant conduct while engaged as an ambulance driver in the Balkans, Miss Isabel McCaw, Arts '16, has been awarded the Military Gold Medal by the Serbian Government. Miss McCaw was for upwards of a year on active service on the Balkans front and is now on her way back to Canada.

McGill graduates who have been appointed medical representatives under the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment include: Dr. James A. Bruce, Med. '01, Sydney, C.B.; Dr. A. E. Lundon, Med. '13, Montreal; Dr. H. T. Douglas, Med. '12, Ottawa; Dr. G. F. Jackson, Med. '01, Halleybury, Ont.; Dr. G. R. Johnson, Med. '02, Calgary, Alberta; and Dr. G. B. Peat, Med. '06, St. John, N.B.

An interesting ceremony took place at military headquarters, Montreal on January 27 when Major-General E. W. Wilson, G.O.C., presented Mrs. M. M. Yule with the Military Cross won by her brother, the late Lieut. A. N. Selater, M.C., of the 13th Battalion.

GROWING!

What is $4.00 today? It is a question of purchasing power. What will $4.00 buy at present prices? Just over one third of a barrel of flour. Before the war flour was selling at $5.00 a barrel.

No one can say just how much more the purchasing power of the dollar will be in 1924, but you can see that the four dollars you put into War-Savings Stamps now, will grow, not only in number, but in value.

Your investment in War-Savings Stamps is like the snowball rolling down a slope. You give it a start and it grows by itself!

Your four dollars becomes five, and every dollar will be worth more.

Whether you buy one W-S.S. each day, or each week, or each month, or only two or three in a year, your money is growing, growing, GROWING all the time.

Those who cannot invest $4.00 at a time, can buy Thrift Stamps at 25 cents each. Sixteen of these on a Thrift Card will be accepted as $4.00 in exchange for a W-S.S.

W-S.S. are sold wherever you see this sign.

Thrift Stamps are sold at above places, and by patriotic storekeepers.

Editor McGill Daily:—

Dear Sir,—You published in the columns of Friday's issue a letter with reference to compulsory military training at McGill, under the signature of "Canadian Field Artillery." The opinions expressed in this letter are so far away from the ideal for which the world is, at the beginning of this post-bellum epoch, striving that it is impossible to let it go by without some comment.

Firstly, he mentions the fact that the gymnasium classes are viewed with anything but favour by the Junior years. Might I ask how much more popular would be the O. T. C. if carried on as an obligatory course of training? If this was looked upon unfavourably by the student body in general in a time of war, when such a measure was a necessity, how much greater is the feeling against it in a time when peace is a reasonably assured measure. Even if the course were commenced as a voluntary one in the coming session it is doubtful if a sufficient number of men in the whole University would show enthusiasm towards it.

Although never having had the privilege of participating in the actual fighting I am also desirous that there be no war in this country. Every normal individual, no matter what he may be, is. That was at least superfluous. Now he makes the sweeping statement that the only way to avoid the fate of all great states of the past
who have lost their military virtues, and have therefore disappeared, is to be prepared. Allow me to put forth an argument along the lines of his sentence mentioned above. Germany in 1914 was prepared, at least as well as she knew. She had a system of military training par excellence. Even before her manhood had reached the university they were thoroughly schooled in military tactics. To reason further along his lines, since this is the only way to escape annihilation, then Germany has escaped
it and is to-day a great and glorious power. Because of her highly developed "military virtues" she emerges victorious over nations whose military training was in a measure neglected. (Reductio ad absurdum.)

No, Mr. C.F.A. the principles for which many a lad died fought and died is, in a broad sense, world peace; and to intimate that another war in the future is possible, is to intimate that they have died in vain. If a future conflict is possible then in one sense
this war has been a miserable failure.
Above anything else it has proved that no matter what may be the military virtues of nations that side will be ultimately victorious which has for its ideals those principles which have placed Great Britain
the premier world power and have placed the Allies where they are today. These are not the views of any one individual, but of many men both returned and otherwise hence I have not the slightest compunction about affixing to this letter my proper signature for publication. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I am,
Yours, ED. S. MILLS. Med. '22.

ENJOYABLE SING AT HALL LAST NIGHT*Ice Cream and Coffee Much Appreciated by Those Present

Last night, around the blazing log fire in the Reading Room of Strathcona Hall, between fifty and sixty students gathered. The R.V.C. students kept their presence, and their softer soprano and alto voices blended nicely with the bass and baritone of the men. The usual old hymns were sung, and it is surprising that so many seem to cherish the same hymns. All denominations were represented in the hymns sung, and no doubt most of the denominations were represented in the gathering, showing the catholicity of the great hymns of the Church.

About nine-thirty, ice cream and cake was handed around, followed directly by coffee. After a few more selections the meeting dispersed after singing the National Anthem.

Any who may have held aloof from these sings will feel well repaid if they but come to one, and surely Sunday evening could not be better spent than joining in the old refrains.

SKI CLUB OUT.

On Saturday afternoon a good number of ski-ers met for the practice.
The First Year was well represented, but unfortunately there were few of the older men. Probably the hour wasn't suitable for them. Those who were out gave a good exhibition, and if the older students will turn out,
McGill will have a promising team.
The contests to be held at Dartmouth on February 13, 14 or 15 will be for ski jumping, cross-country racing, ski joring and ski proficiency. A team of five or six will be sent, so anyone who is good in any branch of ski-ing will have a chance. The regular members of the Ski Club are exempt from physical exercise. The club is affiliated with the Montreal Ski Club, and the members will enjoy the privileges

NOTICESUnion House Committee.

There will be an important meeting of the Union House Committee, on Wednesday, at 5.30 p.m., in the Union.
All members are urged to be present.

Dental Undergrad.

The regular monthly meeting of the Dental Undergraduate Society will take place to-night, at 7.45, in Strathcona Hall. All Dental students are asked to be present, as after the meeting groups will be formed and a visit will be made to several dental offices
in the city.

This will give a good opportunity to the students to study the arrangement and modus operandi of the dental office. After visiting the various offices, the men will meet at the Edinburgh Cafe for refreshments.

Junior Dance Committee.

There will be a meeting of the Junior Dance Committee in the Arts Reading Room, to-day, at 5.00 p.m.

of senior members of the Montreal Ski Club.

A meeting will be held at 1.00 p.m.
on Tuesday, for about fifteen minutes,
to arrange about the practices. A further notice will be printed tomorrow concerning the place of meeting.
